DEFECTIVE JURY SYSTEM.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—

The present system of drawing jurors should be abolished, or the list be extended to embrace a sufficient number of residents to insure a person against being called more than once a year for such duty.

It comes with extreme hardship to many of our business community to drop the management of their private concerns, in order to comply with these periodical demands upon their time.

I assume it to be an infringement of my rights under the constitution to continually make such demands of me or my associate in business, while many others, equally eligible and similarly burdened with the duties of citizenship, are never called to such duty.

Let the list of voters for Nobles be taken and gone through alphabetically, each taking his turn. Let a reserve number of jurors be drawn at every term to take the place of any that may be excused by the Court from the regular panel (I have sat out a term where there were only 16 jurors to draw from, the rest having been excused), and our complaint will cease.

One thing more as to jury trials, it is quite common for lawyers, having cases called, to detain court and jury panel for an hour or more, and then find that they are not ready to go on with the same; consequence, loss of 24 hours' time to jurymen.

In conclusion, the pay of jurors is fixed too low (although this is no cause of complaint from me). A mechanic of even ordinary abilities earns $3 a day, and I believe this a proper compensation for jurors.

THOSE COMPLAINTS FROM LAHAINA.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—

When we are suddenly deprived of luxuries to which we have become accustomed, the change is apt to strike us very forcibly, and with a sensation not altogether agreeable. This is none the less true when the said luxuries have been provided and paid for by others. These reflections are suggested by the "Lahaina Complaint" spoken of in the BULLETIN of last evening. The facts in regard to the case are as follows:

Dr. Mack, the resident Government physician at Lahaina, impaired his health seriously, and it is feared permanently, by his arduous and faithful labors in Kona, Hawaii, where he was formerly located, and was earnestly advised by his professional friends to try the effects of a trip to the Coast, which advice he decided to act upon. It appears from inquiries made at the office of the Board of Health, that when Dr. Mack applied for leave of absence he was informed that it would be granted on condition that he should provide an acceptable substitute during his absence. The doctor informed the Board that his absence would not be a prolonged one, and that an available substitute could be found in the person of a Japanese physician who was subsidized and employed by all the planters in the district.

The Board of Health appears to have concluded that the quality of medical service that was satisfactory to all the planters in the district would answer the general demand for two or three months, and granted Dr. Mack's request accordingly. The following thoughts seem pertinent:

1.—If the Board had not granted Dr. Mack's request, the state of his health would have compelled his unconditional resignation, and the people of Lahaina would have been no better off than at present. 2.—The Board of Health do not undertake, nor can they be expected to keep a reserve staff of thoroughly qualified foreign physicians on hand wherewith to fill temporary vacancies. This would involve keeping them under pay. 3.—Some people seem to think that an extra doctor can be got to leave his established business at any time and go to another district or another island for a few days or a few months, just as a boss builder would take on an extra carpenter or bricklayer when work was pressing. Professional service cannot be handled in that way. It is not practicable to keep competent physicians in stock, like goods on the shelves of a retail shop, to be dealt out over the counter as wanted. 4.—If planters and those immediately connected with them in some districts would show a more liberal spirit, and not combine to practically boycott the educated white physician, and give all the plantation patronage to the cheaper Asiatic, it would be much easier for the Board of Health to put thoroughly good physicians into the country districts, and to keep them there.

In the trouble which Mr. Hayselden has recently experienced in obtaining the services of a physician, he has the sympathy of the writer, but the trouble of getting a physician from Wailuku is not very much greater than from Lahaina, and when a man for his own pleasure or interest elects to take up his abode in an out-of-the-way place, or on an island, with miles of salt water between himself and the rest of the world, he must accept therewith the unpleasant possibilities. FACTS.

HILO NEWS AND NOTES.

The New Steam Line—A Chapter of Accidents—A Wave of Crime.

(From the Hilo Record, July 29.)

The basis of the proposed steamship line between San Diego, Cal., and Hilo, and Honolulu and San Francisco, arrived by last mail and we notice that the object of the company is not to injure or compete with any existing steam communication between the Islands and California, but to open up new markets and increase the trade in articles at present produced in small quantities, especially that of fruit. The steamers are to be fitted up so as to take fruit in large quantities.

We all know what resources there are here for fruit culture, especially in this district. Look at the immense amount of pears, mangoes, pine apples, olives, bananas, guavas, etc., going to waste every year, just because the market for them is limited. With a line direct from here which will take fruit up to San Francisco in short time and in good condition, all of the above mentioned fruit can be sent away in some form or other. With this new market for fruit there will be an increased activity in fruit culture and new varieties of fruit cultivated.

We believe that this will be one of the great industries for Hawaii in the near future, and most sincerely hope that the subsidy asked for from the Government, for the short period of two years, will be granted. The mail facilities will also be greatly enhanced for the Hilo district at least. At present they are anything but of the best.

From Hamakua we hear that a serious railroad accident happened last Thursday evening. The laborers were riding home from work and as they neared a bridge the rails spread and let the engine and cars off the track. Most of the laborers saw that something was going to happen and jumped in time to save themselves, but we hear that eleven men were injured and one to his death. The engine managed to regain the track, but the cars were thrown from it and over the bridge and into the gulch.

Last Friday the ladies of town met at the residence of Mrs. Severance and had a sewing bee. A good bit of work was done and the usual amount of gossip was not gone through with.

In the assault and battery case from Onomea, three of the men arrested were fined and the rest discharged. There seems to be a wave of crime in the form of assault and battery passing over this section of country. The Police Court has been quite busy the last week attending to these cases.

Last Saturday a very large catch of fish was brought in to market. The mullet were of unusual size, some weighing four and five pounds. Several tons of different kinds of fish were caught that night.

Last Monday, the 28th instant, two severe shocks of earthquake were felt here at the hour of 4:15. This makes the number of shocks three for this month.

The Brigham party started for the mountain yesterday morning, expecting to reach camp Puakala the following day.

Social this evening at the residence of Mr. P. S. Lyman.

(EXTRA, JULY 30.)

From Papaikou we learn that the new 17 ton vacuum pan there was blown to pieces this morning about 8 a. m. A Chinaman was cleaning the vacuum pump and had a lighted tallow candle to see by, when without any warning the vacuum pan burst into hundreds of pieces.

The shell of the pan is a complete wreck, but the copper coils are not hurt, being twisted slightly. There had been no heat or steam in the pan since Saturday, and the query is how did it happen. The supposition is, that gases collected there in pump and vacuum, and when the candle came in contact with them in the pump they were immediately ignited and caused the explosion. The Chinaman's hand and arm were badly burned. The building was damaged to some extent by the iron flying through the boards. The iron forming the pan was an inch thick, so the explosion must have been very powerful.
